Mr. Harrison is a salesman for the Utah-Idaho Motor company in Salt Lake.

Charles Mead of the Methodist Episcopal church, Mr. and Mrs. Rhine will be at home at 2322 Fowler avenue in Ogden, for a short time before making their home in Evanston, Wyo. ### CHILD CULTURE CLUB.

Sixty-five members of the Child Culture club and friends were present at the meeting of the club at the Berthana last Thursday afternoon when Mrs. Charles H. Wilson and Mrs. E. S. Hinckley were hostesses. The meeting was one of the most entertaining and instructive ever held by the club. The most interesting feature was the splendid address on "Woman in Civic Betterment" given by Reverend John Edward Carver of the First Presbyterian church of this city. Reverend Carver brought out impressively the power of woman in every reform movement and the urgent need of feminine assistance in all civic matters.

After the address the following ladies and others, led by Mrs. William Wright, entered into discussion of the subject: Mesdames S. S. Smith, Georgina Marriott, Mary E. Drake, Charles H. Wilson and Mrs. Ray. Later a delightful musical program was carried out, vocal solos being given by Miss Marion Browning, Miss Hinckley and two violin selections by Miss Mary Fischer. Guests and members of the club then were seated in the banquet room of the Berthana where four little boys from the Industrial school with their snowy coats and aprons, served a perfectly prepared luncheon. Altogether the meeting was a complete success and thoroughly enjoyed by everyone present.

On January 16 the club members will present a vaudeville dramatic performance on the Orpheum stage for which Moroni Olson is coaching the members in their various parts. The ladies are at work now disposing of the tickets and anticipate a successful affair.

On the afternoon of Dec. 18, at the home of Mrs. David Eccles on Jefferson avenue the club's annual colonial party will be given to the ladies who will appear in colonial costume. This is always one of the most interesting events of the winter in Ogden. Elaborate plans are being made for this event.

HOME CULTURE CLUB.

The Home Culture club met Thursday afternoon with Mrs. Jay Alyson Smith. One guest, Mrs. Louis Cabell was present. It was the musical program of the year and proved most enjoyable. Mrs. T. E. Beeson read an interesting and comprehensive paper on modern American music, and to demonstrate the style and class of different American composers, a number of very fine records were furnished by Mrs. George Barlow and played on the Victrola kindly loaned the club for the afternoon by Glen Bros., to whom a vote of thanks was extended. The explanatory words and little anecdotes concerning the different numbers, with which Mrs. Barlow introduced the work of the several composers added much to Mrs. Beeson's carefully prepared paper. McConell is conceded to be the greatest American composer with Nevin a close second, while the work of a number of other well known composers, both men and women was commented on and illustrated.

Geraldine Farrar by herself was read by Mrs. Clayton Coolidge and the life of the famous singer makes decidedly good reading.

The next meeting of the club will be held January 18th, with Mrs. Hobbs 2269 Adams avenue.

MISSIONARY MEETING.

The regular missionary meeting of the Baptist Woman's society will be held Thursday afternoon, January 11, instead of Tuesday afternoon.

GUESTS AT DINNER-DANCE.

At the Maids' and Matrons' club dinner-dance last evening given in their club rooms some very pretty tables were set and the art of temperance was enjoyed. The Lillian Thatcher orchestra furnished a delightful program of musical numbers.

Mrs. Ralph E. Hoag was hostess to sixteen guests at dinner. The tables were prettily decorated by Mrs. M. S. Browning and Messrs. Sam Powell and Rinehart Gideon, Jr. were hosts to four guests. At a beautifully decorated table Mrs. Ralph E. Bristol presided as hostess and twelve guests were seated. The table was artistically decorated with tiny boats at each guest's place indicative of Mrs. Bristol's coming departure for Honolulu. Altogether the dinner-dance last evening was a social success in every way.

FEDERATED W. C. T. U. MEETS

The most interesting meeting that has been held by the Federated W. C. T. U. this year was held Wednesday in the Bennett block at the Grace Baptist church.

The meeting was to have been partly a mothers' meeting, but that feature was postponed for two weeks when it will be given by Mrs. S. S. Smith, under the auspices of the First ward W. C. T. U.

During the business session, arrangements were made for the observance of the day of prayer for national prohibition, January 18, with an all-day meeting.

The program consisted of the following articles and prayers:

"Physicians Denounce Alcohol" Mrs. Ida Brown
 "Medical Temperance Triumphs" Mrs. Mary Drake
 "Safe Remedies in Illness" Miss Leota Kennedy
 "The Root Beer Fraud" Mrs. H. L. Griffin
 "The Value of Publicity" Mrs. V. Way

Animated discussions followed the readings and papers. The fact was most clearly brought out that when any form of alcohol is used as medicine, nature has to contend with both disease and the evil effects of the alcohol, and that the relieved feeling of the patient when alcohol is used is due to the benumbing of the nerves, which only masks the symptoms without curing the cause and thus gives a false and dangerous sense of security.

That alcohol is a narcotic and depressant and should never be given in heart failure, collapse or where stimulants are needed.

The hostesses, Mesdames C. M. Preshaw, J. E. Lawson, Myrtle Bushnell, W. B. Crites, and Long broke all rules and served elaborate and delicious refreshments.

Nine new members were reported as a result of the recent public meeting.

MR. AND MRS. WOODCOCK ENTERTAIN.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Woodcock entertained a number of friends at their home on Barlow avenue last New Year's eve at a watch party. The rooms were prettily decorated for the occasion with white chrysanthemums and holly wreaths. During the earlier part of the evening the guests enjoyed games of progressive 500 and at 12 o'clock, just as the bells and whistles sounded the approach of the new year, refreshments were served. The table was prettily decorated with chrysanthemums as the centerpiece. Covers were laid for the following: Dr. and Mrs. Ernest Browning, Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Allison, Mr. and Mrs. James Purrrington, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Woodcock.

The tree which graced the home on Christmas morning was further beautified for the pleasure of the little guests. Victrola and piano music was furnished for the dancing and a tempting buffet luncheon was served. Those who spent the evening were: Misses Helen Conroy, Lucille Kline, Mary Matson, Gladys Kouski, Bonita Scowcroft, Dolly Scowcroft, Virginia Scowcroft, Mildred Runyan, Geneva Brown, Katherine Schuffelbarger, Katherine Madson and Ruth McBride, and the Masters, John Scowcroft, LaMont Hendershot, Francis Wood, Clinton Pugmire, Bob Kuhn, Tharr Rich Ralph Nye, Elliott Wright, Kenneth Wright, Fred Chez and Kenneth Harris.

Thorough Equipment

It is easy to see the impossibility of putting an edge on a razor with a grindstone. But it is not so easy to detect inferior work in cleaning, especially with dark garments.

The only sure way is to send your garments to a thoroughly equipped plant, such as ours, then you are sure of a satisfactory cleaning service.
